HONORED BY ODD FELLOWS

Reception and Banquet Tendered Rev. P. H. Case. Addresses are Made by Prominent Men.

Honoring Rev. P. H. Case, of Yale, Mich., the members of Port Huron and Huronia lodges, I. O. O. F., held a reception and banquet in the temple on Lapeer avenue Tuesday evening. The affair was to show the appreciation of the local Odd Fellows for Rev. Mr. Case who came to this city last spring to preach the annual memorial services for two lodges.

Over 200 people, members of the order, and of the Rebekahs, who were also guests at the affair, sat down to the banquet. Frank R. Watson acted as toastmaster, and after a short address called upon Judges E. F. Law and Stephen A. Graham, Past Grand Master John Gibson, Rev. P. H. Case, Rev. J. H. Cooper, Rev. B. F. Lewis, Mrs. R. G. Burwell, Mrs. Pilkey and others for speeches. Judge Law's address was the principal one of the evening, however. He talked on "The Good of the Order." During the evening solos were rendered by H. G. Burwell, Miss Ethel Scuphulm and Sherwood French, while duets were rendered by the Misses Beatrice Scuphulm and Marion Molloy. At the close of the banquet, Judge Graham presented Rev. Mr. Case with a handsome umbrella on behalf of the Odd Fellows.

J. A. RAPLEY HONORED.

Honoring J. A. Rapley, who leaves Yale for North Branch soon, J. E. Beavis gave a spread Thursday evening the guests being members of the council when he was Mayor last year, viz Dr. Stevens, John Staley, John Hutton, Doughty Middleton, Fred Palmer and James Wallace, making covers for eight with host and honored guest. We believe the printed menu will be appreciated by our readers as well as by those for whom it was gotten up so through the kindness of Mr. Beavis, we give it. Our townsmen will readily see the ludicrous part. The evening was a pleasure to all concerned.

HURT D. CADY

Who is now Port Huron's Popular Postmaster, having taken the Office December 1st, 1909.

Rev. P. H. Case to take Trip Around The World.

Aided by the fine stereopticon at the 1st Presbyterian church and helped by almost one thousand beautiful slides from all parts of the world, Rev. P. H. Case has completed arrangements to lead a party of tourists on a trip around the world. The start will be made next Thursday at 8 o'clock when they will go to Ellis Island and watch the immigrants as they pour in from all corners of the globe. Then there will be trips to Alaska, Mexico, among the Indians Africa, Persia, China, India in fact "into all the world." These trips have been prepared and illustrated by some of the most eminent travellers of the world and Yale is indeed fortunate in securing this course of lectures.

They have been given with the greatest success in many of our largest city churches and provide an entertainment that will be intensely interesting.

The price for the course is extremely low being only $1.00 for adults and 75c for children under 12 years of age. Single admissions, 15 and 10c. The following are the dates:—

Dec. 9—"Making Americans of our Immigrants."

Dec. 30—"Alaska, the land of Golden Promise."

Jan. 20—"The Passing of the Indian."

Feb. 10—"Mexico, the land of the Montezumas."

Mar. 3—"Africa, the Dark Continent."

Mar. 24—"Persia and her People."

Apr. 7—"China and the Yellow Peril."

April 27—"Japan, the Rising Nation."

May 3—"Into the Jungles of India."

May 19—"Into all the World."

This course is also to be given at Avoca.
